

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

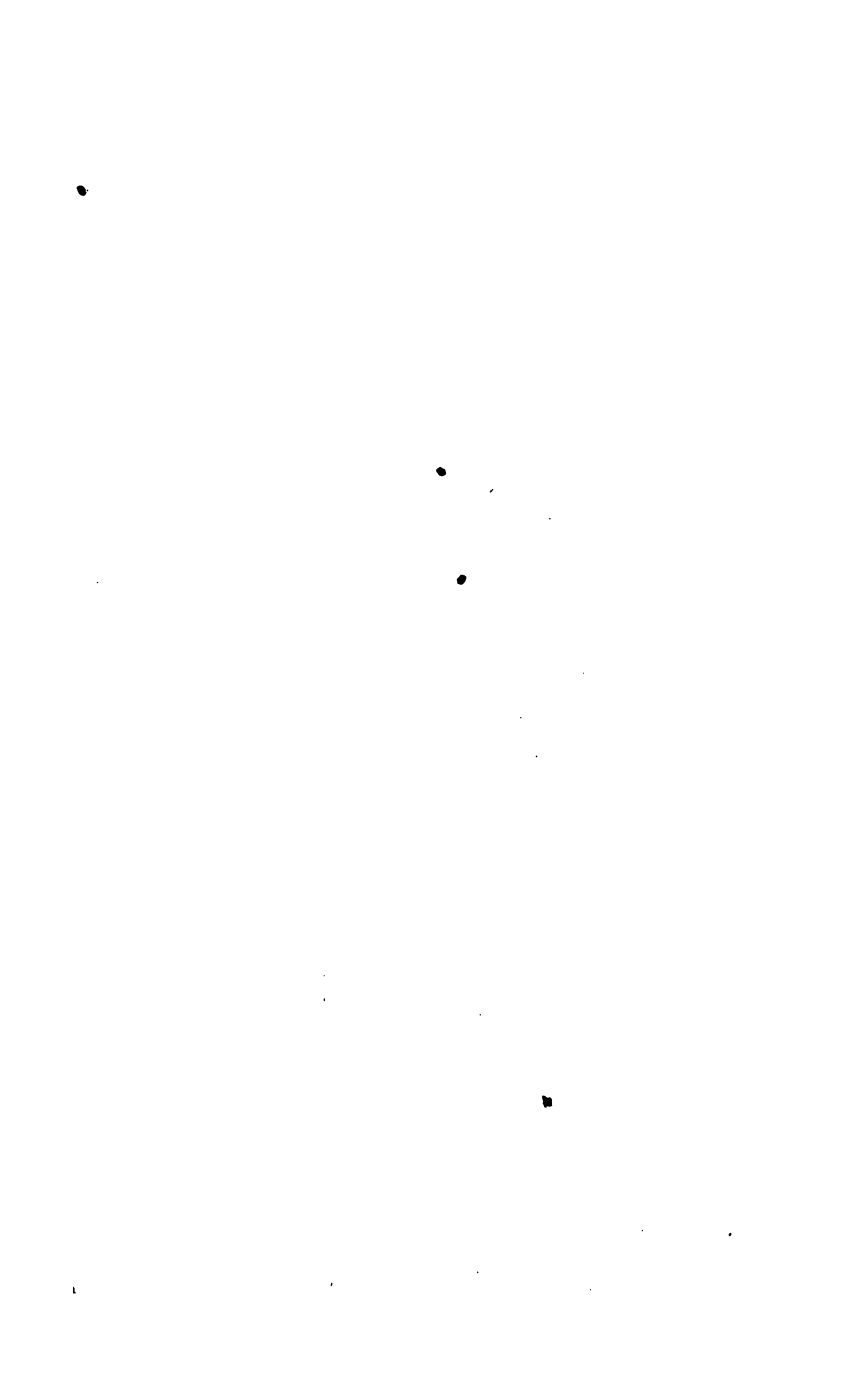

THE publication of the Catholic Almanac originally began in New York, where it was carried on for two years, and afterwards taken up in Baltimore by Mr. Myers, and after one year's competition, was continued exclusively till 1857 by Fielding Lucas, Jr., and his sons and successors Lucas Bros. New York, then, as Baltimore abandoned it, resumed the publication of the Almanac, and it was printed again in New York for 1859-60, by the house of Dunigan & Bro.; but as Messrs. John Murphy & Co., of Baltimore, had also resumed the publication in 1859, the New York issue stopped, but unfortunately the Baltimore Almanac also stopped with 1861, and the Catholic public have been without their usual annual visitor during the last two years.

The present publishers intend to make it permanent, and trust that the Catholic hierarchy will sustain them. It is a matter of little pecuniary benefit to a publisher, and competition will merely produce the result of again depriving Catholics of the information of which the Almanac has been the medium.

The preparation this year is difficult beyond precedent. From some States beyond the lines of the United States forces we can get no returns, and in some Border States they are of course less full and accurate. The interruption of a few has broken the routine, and some reports did not reach till after the first week in December.

No effort has, however, been spared to make the Almanac as ample as possible, and it includes not only the dioceses of British America, but a full list of the priests in Ireland

CALENDAR.

The kalends were the first day of each month among the Romans, hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calenda.

The time which the sun takes to move around the earth gave the first great measure of time, the year. The real solar year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds. The common or civil year only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24th, in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile, or, in English, Leap Years. The Julian Calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, ordered the days from October 5th to 14th in that year to be suppressed, and the century year 1700, 1800, not to be regarded as leap years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, Protestant countries refused for nearly two hundred years to accept, but, preferring darkness to light, retained the erroneous calendar. In New York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on capturing it, restored the erroneous form and retained it for a hundred years.

1864. BISSEXTILE OR LEAP YEAR.

6577th Year of the Julian Period.

5624-5th Year of the World, according to the Jewish computation.

75-6th Year since the Adoption of the Federal Constitution.

MOVABLE FEASTS.

Easter, being the commemoration of the Passover, which was regulated by a lunar year, varies every year. It is always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the twenty-first of March. This was established at the Council of Nice, various differences existing in different parts, many Eastern churches adopting other days, and the Church in Ireland in some years differing in its calculation from that of Rome.

Holidays of Obligation.

1. The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord or Christmas.

N. B. Sundays and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Western Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi are not holidays of obligation.)

N. B. This year the festival of the Annunciation both as to the office and feriation, i. e. obligation of holiday, will be observed on April 4, in accordance with a decree of the Congregation of Rites, No. 3204, and approved by the Holy Father, March 11, 1890.

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember-Days (see below). The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All-Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B. 1. When a Vigil falls upon a Sunday, it is kept on the Saturday preceding that Sunday. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock, M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States, on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge, to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by an indult of Pope Pius IX., from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, viz. Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 10th of September. They are days of fasting, and are of great antiquity in the church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of Clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence to be gained by all, who having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church, or any other: and if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Gloria be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith, and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, F. D.

From the vigil of Christmas, until the day of Epiphany, inclusively,

From the first Sunday of Lent, to the second, inclusively.

From Passion Sunday to Maundy Thursday, inclusively.

From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.

From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday, until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael, the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All-Saints, and during the whole Octave of the same.

By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 23, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the Indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognised by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States west of the Mississippi except Florida.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE DIRECTORY.

The Prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures, of which the Mass is composed, are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospels, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent, or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which cannot be superseded, except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and also, that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, &c., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following DIRECTORY, as a guide to the morning, as well as to the evening service of the church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles (so-called because the Anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers), some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2 cl.; others are greater doubles, marked, gr. doub.; others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves, which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semidouble.

Doub. 1st cl., denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl., a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week day, having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, &c.; Vig. or vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which take place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which take place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun-eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid, and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day, when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespera, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class (on which no notice is taken of simples) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low, private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass; viz. the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the ember days, and Tuesday in rogation week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but, of the ember days and Tuesday in rogation week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival, that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or an ember day, the mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension-eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holiday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holiday is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterwards to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles; and among the doubles or semidoubles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases, two collects, &c., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, &c.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, ~~and~~ which are said two collects, &c.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, &c., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, &c., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, &c., are said; but, if the priest please he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, &c.—N.B. The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B. V. M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, &c., is found in the votive mass of the blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B. V. M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent: from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus: Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation: the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The word opt. or optional, signifies that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers, found towards the end of the missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER, OR OFFICE BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order, as well as the manner, in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father, and Hail Mary, being said in silence, the priest making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five Psalms, with as many anthems, have been sung, the Priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed by such Prayers and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it often happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holiday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE ORNAMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed; and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an Altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our Blessed Saviour, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy mysteries, through a motive of honour and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervour of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St. Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the Priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery, when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophecy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you."—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the Priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another.—John xviii. 12-24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colours of the ornaments with which the Priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential colour, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-days, and Rogation-days, when the Office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, &c, the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer "Deus omnium fidelium" in the Votive Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and Feasts of the 2d Class the commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese, the commemoration must be on the Anniversary of the Transfer.

3. By an Apostolic Indult, dated February 7, 1847, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., unless it fall on a Sunday, is to be transferred to the following Sunday, on which the private, as well as the solemn Masses, are celebrated of the feast. It is also made the Patronal Feast of the United States. The commemorations proper to the day are to be observed according to the Rubrics.

MOST REV. FRANCIS PATRICK KENRICK, D.D.

ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE.

The See of Baltimore, first filled by the illustrious Carroll, the noble corner-stone of the American hierarchy, and by the saintly Neale, has always been occupied by prelates whose personal character won alike reverence and respect; but among that line which is so dear to Catholics none will obtain more enduring fame than the one so lately taken from amongst us. The labors of a great mind, stored with the treasures of ecclesiastical learning, conscious of the wants of his time and country, mild, gentle, condescending, but inflexible in principle, have exercised and will long continue to exert a most salutary influence. He was the ideal of a controversialist, never stooping to quibble, evasion, or sarcasm, winning his hearer with the grace of a St. Francis de Sales or a Fenelon. Hence his polemical writings were many and various, and in some cases his earlier studies resulted at least in elaborate treatises that will stand as proud monuments of our Catholic Literature. One of his earliest discussions, "Letters of Omicron to Omega," in reply to Rev. Dr. Blackburn, covered the whole doctrine of the Real Presence, while Baptism and Justification were severally the subjects of separate treatises. But his great controversial work was a series of letters on the Primacy addressed to Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, which became in successive editions the elaborate treatise on the Primacy so justly admired. The whole field of Dogmatic Theology was treated in his Theologia Dogmatica, and his Moral Theology, a work of still more practical value, gave the young levite and the laborious missionary a manual suited to the exigencies and new combinations arising in a country so different from Europe.

Archbishop Kenrick was one of the first in this country to take into consideration the lamentable condition of the text of our English Bibles, which, altered by unskilful or unauthorized hands, had in different editions widely departed from that noble translation of Rheims and Douay, used so profitably by the translators of King James, and redolent of the best English age. And, not only this, but no new standard was adopted, they differed so far from each other, that with the swarms of typographical errors the different Catholic Bibles corresponded neither with the Vulgate, the Rheims and Douay, Dr. Challoner, nor anybody else. Archbishop Kenrick, as the best remedy, devoted himself to a new and careful translation on the basis of the original Rhenish Douay as edited by Dr. Challoner, and though but slightly encouraged, and in fact discouraged by some, who were utterly unconscious of the evil which he sought to remedy, continued to issue successive volumes till he published at last the whole Bible in a correct, faithful English dress. The immense service thus rendered is not yet appreciated, but it will one day be the boast of our time.

Archbishop Kenrick, as a man of learning, thus was a laborer in all the fields of ecclesiastical literature; as a bishop, whether in Philadelphia or Baltimore, he was no less eminent, and religion developed under his guidance in a healthy spirit, and the fruit of a living Catholicity, establishments of piety, learning and charity.

He was born in Dublin, December 8, 1797, and after finishing his preliminary studies, resolved to devote himself to the service of the Altar. From his abilities he was chosen as one who was to have the privilege of pursuing his divinity studies at Rome, where he passed seven years at the College of the Propaganda, winning golden opinions from all by his progress in sacred learning, and by his singular modesty.

When Bishop Flaget earnestly appealed for a clergyman to direct his newly founded ecclesiastical seminary, Dr. Kenrick was selected by a most happy choice, and proceeding to the scene of his labors, reached Kentucky in September, 1821. The patriarch of the church in the Western States at once appreciated the merit of this young priest, and in his correspondence spoke of him as "remarkable for his piety, extensive acquirements, the quickness of his mind, and the natural eloquence with which he expressed himself." His duties in the Seminary kept him in seclusion, but in the jubilee of 1826-7 he attended Bishop Flaget in his pastoral visitations, preaching with fruit, and giving most successful public conferences on religion, which led to the polemical discussions that formed so important a part of his labors.

As a professor he was remarkable for the clear and lucid manner in which he developed the different points of sacred science to his pupils.

His merit was soon to raise him to a position of honor and difficulty. The diocese of Philadelphia was at this time in a state which excited the utmost concern in those charged with the government of the church. An unworthy priest, who ere long apostatized and lived for years reviling and libelling the spouse of Christ, had created a schism in the diocese, which, as often happens, outlived the immediate question that gave it birth, and by its everchanging forms involved bishop, clergy, seculars with regulars, and even the laity in its strifes and bickerings. The Holy See resolved to appoint a coadjutor to the Bishop of Philadelphia, and invest him with the administration of the diocese. The Church in America has seen no more critical moment, no more appalling task imposed upon a bishop. Dr. Kenrick was selected, and it proved that the Spirit of God directed the choice. Consecrated by Bishop Flaget at Bardstown, in June 6, 1830, as Bishop of Arath, he proceeded to the city of Philadelphia, and commenced his labor for peace, Christian progress, and Catholic edification.

During his administration of the diocese as administrator, and later as bishop, he was the leader of his flock in all good works.

The Cholera of 1832 saw him the devoted pastor; and on all occasions the spiritual and temporal wants of his flock called forth various establishments, in the foundation of which he was mainly instrumental. It was, however, his affliction to see in 1844, many of the edifices reared by piety and zeal destroyed by an irreligious and fanatical mob. To raise from their ruins these establishments imposed on Dr. Kenrick new exertions and new sacrifices; and the Christian bishop, who, amid the whirlwind of minister-kindled fanaticism, had breathed to his people only words of peace and forbearance, now without a word of recrimination, or one revengeful thought, went patiently to work to restore the labor of years thus ruthlessly destroyed by men who all the while boasted of liberality.

During his episcopacy at Philadelphia, Bishop Kenrick introduced the Sisters of Charity in several parts, founded a Theological Seminary, a Penitent Asylum under the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, and aided the Jesuits and Augustinians to found collegiate establishments.

In the Councils of Baltimore, Bishop Kenrick was an attentive and important member, many of the Acts having emanated from him, and most of them coming from his pen.

On the death of Archbishop Eccleston, it was therefore easily conceived why he was translated to the Metropolitan See, in August, 1851. The dioceses of the United States had now been divided into provinces under different Archbishops, and Baltimore had ceased to be the Metropolitan See of the country, but the Holy See appointed Archbishop Kenrick Apostolic Delegate to preside at a National Council of all the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States, and subsequently invested him with a "primacy of honor." This plenary council, held in May, 1852, was the grandest Assembly of Catholic prelates ever seen in the Western world, six Archbishops and 26 Bishops taking part in the deliberations.

Subsequent to this great Council the Archbishop held provincial Councils and Diocesan Synods, in all endeavoring to exalt the dignity and usefulness of the priesthood, and guard the flock from error.

During his Episcopal career in Baltimore, many noble institutions grew up under his auspices, such as the Infant Asylum, the Aged Woman's Home, St. Agnes Asylum, Mount Hope, and the Convent of Sisters of Mercy.

His life was that of the Saint and the scholar. He rose every morning, winter and summer, at five o'clock, and said mass at six. He was then willing to hear the confessions of all who came to him—as he spoke French, Italian, German, and Spanish. His confessional was surrounded with the natives of these countries. His mornings were devoted to study, and receiving the visits of all who called on him about business. Ever making corrections in his works already published, or engaged in writing new ones, he was always easy of access. The afternoon he devoted to reading his office, and to taking exercise. His evenings were spent in reading or writing. He retired to bed at ten o'clock. The writer of this has known him to rise from his bed at night when called to attend one of his penitents, and be ready to say mass at the usual hour next morning. Humility and patience were strongly marked in his character—once he had severe surgical operations performed on him without any one in the house knowing how much he suffered. He used often to say that though he had been a writer of Catholic works for more than thirty years, he had made only two hundred dollars by all his labors. A brief sketch like this cannot do justice to such a great and good man. It is to be hoped that a life of such a holy and noble man will one day be written. We know it will add lustre to the American hierarchy, and be read with delight by all who venerate the memory of Cheverus and Flaget.

His life was one of constant labor, as a bishop, a Christian scholar, a missionary. His departure was sudden. He retired to rest on the 6th of July, 1863, in his usual health and cheerfulness, as it would seem, but in the morning was found a corpse. He was solemnly interred on the 11th with his predecessors in the see, the Archbishop of New York, the Archbishop of Cincinnati, the Bishops of Wheeling, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Erie, Louisville, Covington, Brooklyn, and Buffalo assisting, and the last named pronouncing his eulogy.

BISHOP OF LITTLE ROCK.

Bishop Byrne, who for many years governed the diocese of Little Rock, was a most zealous and laborious bishop; from his appointment to the new See erected in the State of Arkansas, he labored unceasingly to build up the Church in that remote and slowly progressing State. Catholics were few and scattered, and the Bishop found but scanty resources to enable him to accomplish what he saw to be so necessary for the salvation of souls, and the edification of the faithful.

He was born at Navan, in Ireland, December 5, 1802, of a respectable family, and after a primary course entered the diocesan Seminary founded at his native place by the Very Rev. Eugene O'Reilly, Archdeacon of Meath.

When the Rt. Rev. Dr. England was created Bishop of Charleston in 1820, the young levite was one of those who accompanied him to America. Here Mr. Byrne was ordained by Bishop England, and for several years remained in his diocese, in the duties of a simple missionary and the more important functions of Vicar-General. About the year 1836, however, he removed to the diocese of New York, and was employed at the Cathedral and at St. James' Church, of which he was pastor. He was also pastor of the Church of the Nativity; and on the 19th of March, 1841, opened that of St. Andrew, the latter of which he directed as pastor when he was appointed Bishop of the newly erected See of Little Rock. He was consecrated in the Cathedral at New York, on the 10th of March, 1844, by the most Rev. Archbishop, and proceeded to Arkansas.

He lost no time in visiting his native land to obtain priests, nuns, and catechists, and promoted by every means in his power religion in every part of this immense territory. Again, in 1859, he re-visited Ireland for the same purpose, and still further augmented the laborers in the vineyard of Christ with a branch of the Sisters of Mercy, from Baggot-street, Dublin. "He said the extent, as to space, of his diocese was at least half of that of all Europe put together; that it would at some remote period be the seat, not of one, but of six dioceses; that in some cases he had to travel, on his visitation from one mission to another, from 700 to 1000 miles; and that whilst in 1842-43 the number of churches or chapels was in the whole but four, in 1862 there were seventeen, with fifty stations; that whilst the priests then were only four, they are now twenty-four, with six ecclesiastical students; that whilst there was then no religious institute, there are now four, with twelve schools and seminaries for both sexes; and that whilst the Catholic population was but 5000, it now numbers upwards of 50,000."

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF

THE CARDINAL PRIESTS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH,

With the years of their birth, Cardinalitial titles, and their creation.

The Title, to which a Cardinal Priest is named, is a church, generally very ancient, of which he is appointed superior, with jurisdiction, right to a throne, and to Pontificalia in it. The body of Cardinals thus represents the clergy of Rome, and as such elects its Bishop. The Cardinal Priest, therefore, is said to be the titular, or priest, of the title of a given church in Rome, and he only obtains this title by personally visiting Rome.

In Louisville there are four Conferences of St. Vincent de Paul, established at the Cathedral and at the Chapels of St. John the Evangelist and St. Patrick. The members labor with great zeal, and are doing much good. Dr. John C. Metcalfe is the President of the Society, which numbers nearly 400 members.

A beautiful Lady Chapel has lately been completed in the rear of the Cathedral, chiefly for the use of the Sodalties of young men and young women, who number together nearly 400. The chapel is 55 by 30 feet, and is handsomely finished in the Gothic style, with the ceiling painted in fresco, and decorated with emblems of the Virgin selected chiefly from the Litany of Loretto. It was solemnly blessed on the 18th of August, 1863, by the Right Rev. Dr. Le Fèvre, Bishop of Detroit, the Right Rev. Dr. Timon, Bishop of Buffalo, preaching to a large audience in the Cathedral on the interesting occasion. Under the chapel there is a lofty and spacious room of the same dimensions, intended for a Library and Reading Room.

The Sodalties for young men and young women, as well as for boys and girls, at the Cathedral, are in a highly flourishing condition, and they afford much edification. There are similar Sodalties at St. Patrick's and St. John's.

There is likewise in the Cathedral a congregation, with the approbation of the Bishop, a Catholic Institute for promoting literary culture among young men, who have a library and debating room.

There are also Parochial Schools for boys and girls established in all the Congregations of the city, in which about three thousand children receive the benefits of a sound Christian education.

GENERAL REMARKS AND RECAPITULATION.

I. GENERAL REMARKS.

1. Within the city limits, including Portland, there are eight churches, besides four chapels. Of these, five, including the spacious cathedral, have been built under the administration of the present bishop; while others have been considerably enlarged, as St. Boniface and Notre Dame du Port. During the present year, notwithstanding the troubles of the country, a beautiful new Lady Chapel, chiefly for the use of the Sodality, has been added to the Cathedral, having under it a commodious library and reading room; while the churches of St. Martin and the Immaculate Conception are in process of enlargement, the former to triple its former capacity, the church of St. John is receiving a new front, and a new parsonage is erecting at St. Patrick's. These are encouraging indications of progress in the midst of difficulties.

2. Parochial Schools are attached to all the churches; in fact, in many cases, the erection of the school preceded that of the church, or rather one story of the school was temporarily used as a church until the congregation could be fully organized. The idea was, to reach the parents through the children, and to rear these up in the discipline of the Lord, with a view to the solid and permanent stability of religion. At present there are sixteen parochial schools in the city, besides four of a higher grade. These, with a single exception, in the small congregation of St. Peter's, are all taught by Religious Brothers and Sisters, who have thus under literary and religious training more than three thousand children in twenty schools, not far from the number regularly attending the Public City Schools, which latter, Catholics, by a singular injustice, are nevertheless heavily taxed to support—and this in a country calling itself free! It is, however, believed that ere long, the innate sense of justice in the American mind and heart will cause this iniquity to disappear, and to accord simple justice to Catholics, who ask nothing more. The most effectual means of bringing about this result, is for them to provide respectable schools for themselves; schools which, in all their appointments, may compare favorably with the Public Schools. This has been already well nigh accomplished in Louisville.

3. The number of religious women in the Six Communities established in the diocese has also greatly increased. The total number does not now fall far short of five hundred, besides about a hundred more, belonging to the two Diocesan Communities of Loretto and Nazareth, who are attached to institutions in other dioceses. Six hundred Christian Virgins, heroines of Divine charity, present an evidence of singular vitality in the diocese founded by the Venerable Flaget, assisted by such holy men as David, Nerinckx, and others.

4. In all new church and school buildings, the rule of not incurring debts, except light ones easily manageable, has been rigidly adhered to. Not only is the Cathedral entirely free of debt, but no other church, school, or establishment of the city or diocese is encumbered with a serious liability. The debts of all of them might be easily discharged in a year or two by a moderate effort.

5. By a diocesan regulation, the children of all the parishes, too young for first communion, receive instruction and prepare for confession four times a year.

This Institution is incorporated with the privileges of a university, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the county of Westchester, eleven miles distant from the city of New York, and three from Harlem—very easy of approach at all seasons, either by private conveyance or by the railway, which lies along the foot of the beautiful lawn in front of the College.

The fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the peculiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the senior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors.

The regular classical course of instruction embraces the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English and French Languages; Religion, Elocution, Poetry, and Rhetoric; Geography, Mythology, and History; Arithmetic, Book-keeping and Mathematics; Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy.

When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have sons or wards fitted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly.

There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught spelling, reading, writing, the first elements of English Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic.

The German and Spanish languages are taught, if required, but, together with music, drawing, and other similar accomplishments, form extra charges. Twice a week there is a gratuitous lesson of vocal music for the beginners of the preparatory classes.

The Course of Studies is divided into two distinct departments—the Classical and Commercial.

The Classical Course embraces the Greek, Latin, English and French Languages; Rhetoric, Poetry, Elocution, History, Geography, Mythology; a complete course of Mathematics, Chemistry, Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy.

The Commercial Course, which is completed in three years, comprises the English and French Languages; English Literature, Elocution, History, Geography, Mythology, the use of Globes, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Mathematics and Natural Philosophy.

The German language is taught free of charge to those who wish to learn it.

Punctual attendance is earnestly recommended: hence, in case of absence, a note from the parents or guardians is required, who shall be informed of the non-attendance of their children or wards.

Monthly reports of behavior, application, and progress are sent to parents and guardians. To ensure success, private study at home should be insisted on.

There are two examinations—one in winter, the other for promotion at the close of the collegiate year.

During the course of the year, any student of any class, if he be found fit for a higher class, may be promoted thereto, and this promotion is equivalent to the honors of the class from which he passed.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must stand an examination in Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and in mathematics.

Within the precincts of the College, two court-yards, entirely cut off from the street, are reserved for recreation, so that the students are entirely secluded, and continually under the eyes of their Prefects and Professors, from the time of their arrival, at nine o'clock in the morning, until that of their departure, at a quarter past three in the afternoon.

The collegiate year opens at the beginning of September, and ends about the middle of July. It is divided into quarters of eleven weeks each.

SETON HALL COLLEGE, SOUTH ORANGE, N. J.

This College is conducted by Secular Priests, aided by Lay Professors, under the immediate supervision of the Right Rev. J. Roosevelt Bayley, D. D.

The Domestic Department and the Infirmary are under the care of the SISTERS OF CHARITY.

The building, grounds, and neighborhood are all that could be desired. It is situated three and a half miles from Newark and twelve from New York City.

Seton Hall College has been founded to provide Catholic parents with an Institution, combining a superior education with the strictest attention to the manners, morals, and personal habits of the students, and some regard to the selection of the companions of their children. Consequently, only a limited number of students is received.

For further information, references, etc., address

REV. B. J. McQUAID,
Seton Hall, South Orange, N. J.

College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Mass.

This College was founded, solely for the education of Catholics, by the Right Rev. Benedict Joseph Fenwick, Bishop of Boston, in the year 1843, and by him given to the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. The location is remarkably healthy. One hundred and twenty-five acres of land are attached to the College. It stands on Bogachoag, or Hill of Pleasant Springs, within two miles of the city of Worcester, and commands an extensive view of the beautiful country around. The water is abundant and of the first quality, the play-grounds are spacious, and afford facilities for healthful amusements at all seasons.

After the usual course of Arithmetic and Book-Keeping, the students, according to their proficiency and capacity, are placed in different classes of Mathematics.

There are three classes of French in which the students are distributed according to their abilities.

There are two semi-annual examinations. If, at the first examination, any one be found to have sufficiently improved, he is promoted to a higher class. Such promotion will be equivalent to the honors of the class left.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Intellectual, Moral, and Natural Philosophy, before the Faculty of the College. They must, besides, have pursued the regular classical course.

Careful attention is bestowed on the religious and moral training of the students, who, even in hours of recreation, are under the special superintendence of Prefects or Disciplinarians.

Books, Papers, Periodicals, &c., are not allowed circulation among the students, without having been previously revised by one of the Faculty.

Whilst the moral and intellectual culture of the youths committed to our care is attended to with all assiduity, their physical development is by no means neglected. A Ball Alley and Gymnasium occupy a portion of the ordinary play-grounds; the numerous hills and lakes in the vicinity afford, during the winter months, every opportunity for skating and coasting. The Blackstone River, which runs within a few hundred yards of the College, offers safe and delightful bathing-places. The farm attached presents ample range for the indulgence of Foot Ball and Cricket games, at their proper seasons. These innocent amusements, added to the healthfulness of the climate and location, work wonders in our students, many of whom enter with pale cheeks and sickly frames, but invariably depart in buoyant spirits and flushed with health.

Each student must be supplied with, at least, two suits of daily wear and one for Sundays, six shirts, six pairs of stockings, six pocket-handkerchiefs, six towels, two or three cravats, &c., two or three pairs of boots or shoes, an overcoat or cloak. Each student must be provided with a silver table-spoon, marked with his name.

Reports will be sent to parents or guardians, to inform them of the application, conduct and progress of their sons or wards. Also, regular accounts, in advance, for Board and Tuition. It is earnestly requested that immediate remittances be made, to the full amount.

The Collegiate year commences on the first Monday of September, but students are received at any period of the year. Applicants from other institutions will not be received without testimonials as to character and conduct, from the Principal of the institution which they last attended.

The object of the Institution is to prepare youths for a Professional or for a Commercial state of life.

St Louis University,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

The St. Louis University was founded in 1829, by members of the Society of Jesus. In 1832, it was incorporated by an act of the State Legislature, and empowered to confer the usual Academic Honors.

The Collegiate Department comprises two distinct courses of study—the Classical and the Commercial. The Classical course is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the English, Latin and Greek languages; of Mental and Moral Philosophy; of pure and mixed Mathematics, and of the Physical sciences. It is completed in six years. The students in this course are divided, according to their proficiency, into six classes which correspond with the six years of the course. The Commercial course, which extends through four years, embraces all the branches of a good English education. When a student is admitted, he is examined by the Prefect of Studies, and placed in the class which his previous attainments have qualified him to enter.

The Academic year consists of one session, beginning on the first Monday of September and ending about the 4th of July. Students are admitted at any time during the session.

The Sisters of St. Joseph, having erected a large addition to the former Academy, they have at present ample accommodations for one hundred and fifty boarders.

The site of the Institution is, in the highest degree, healthy, being situated on a beautiful table-land which rises boldly from the west bank of the Mississippi river, and is surrounded by a most beautiful woodland country, where the pupils generally take a walk every Wednesday evening.

It has every advantage of quiet and seclusion for the education of youth.

The scholastic year, consisting of ten months, commences on the 1st of September and ends on the 28th of June. It is divided into two sessions of five months each.

There is a private Examination of all the classes, held at the end of each session, and bulletins of proficiency sent to parents or guardians.

The last Examination is followed by a public Exhibition and Distribution of Premiums.

All means are employed to excite laudable emulation in the minds of the pupils. Strict attention is paid to the religious instruction of Catholic children. Pupils of all denominations are admissible, and their religious opinions are not interfered with.

The course of instruction comprises the English, French, and German Languages; Vocal and Instrumental Music; Plain and Ornamental Needlework; making of Artificial Flowers; Drawing and Painting in Water colors and in Oil; Orthography, Writing, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Algebra, Grammar, Geography, Astronomy with the use of the Globes, Sacred and Profane History, Mythology, Rhetoric, Botany, Natural Philosophy and Chemistry.

MOTHER ST. JOHN, Superiress.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

CHARTERED 1855.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY, under the charge of the Sisters of Holy Cross, is situated on the St. Joseph's river, eighty miles east of Chicago, and two miles from South Bend, a flourishing town on the Michigan Southern Railroad.

The grounds are very extensive, beautifully adorned, and situated in that charming seclusion which is so favorable to the healthful development of moral, physical, and intellectual power.

The buildings are spacious and commodious, suited to the educational requirements of the day, and furnished with all modern improvements. Every portion of the building is heated by steam, and hot and cold baths are attached to the sleeping apartments.

The routine of instruction combines the solidity of scientific and literary pursuits with those lighter and more graceful accomplishments, which throw a charm over domestic life, and contribute so essentially to elevate the tone of society at large.

Particular attention is paid to the religious instruction of Catholic pupils. Pupils of all denominations received, and for the sake of order they are merely required to attend the public religious exercises with the members of the Institution.

The Scientific Departments receive the most careful attention. Scientific literary lectures are given through the year by skillful professors from the University of Notre Dame.

The Institution possesses a fine Laboratory and Philosophical Apparatus, together with choice and extensive Herbariums of foreign and native plants.

The French and German languages are spoken in the Institution.

Of Music, which forms so prominent a feature in an accomplished education, from its continued requisition in the service of religion, it is scarcely necessary to speak. Already its excellence is appreciated by the public, as is testified by the continually increasing number of musical pupils. Great attention is paid to the Vocal and Instrumental departments, which are under the control of most experienced and accomplished teachers. Independently of the private weekly lessons received by the pupils, instructions, vocal and instrumental, are given in regularly graded classes.

INSTITUTION FOR DEAF MUTES.

This unfortunate and interesting portion of our community have, until now, enjoyed none of the privileges of the faith in this country. Parents and guardians have been compelled either to neglect their education altogether, or to send them to Institutions where Catholic faith and teachings are entirely ignored. Now, that in the designs of Providence, the blessings of religion are opened to them at St. Mary's, we would urge those interested to extend the opportunities now offered, as far as their influence will permit. Non-Catholic pupils received, and required only to attend the usual public exercises.

ST. MARY'S SEMINARY, PERRYVILLE, PERRY CO., MO.

This Institution, already long and favorably known to the public as a nursery of piety and learning, located about eighty miles below St. Louis, and twelve from the Mississippi river, still prosecutes peacefully and prosperously, and even with increased facilities, its praiseworthy and holy work of educating young aspirants to the ecclesiastical state.

The course of studies is classical, commercial, and scientific, thorough and extensive, adapted to qualify the student to enter advantageously on the higher branches of ecclesiastical learning, whilst fitting him for secular pursuits, should such afterwards be deemed his calling.

A select number of Catholic children, too young to make choice of a state of life, will be received and trained as the ecclesiastical students; particular attention, however, being paid to the wants of their tender age and the wishes of parents and guardians. The discipline is strict, though mild and parental; the students, in reality, form but one family with their Professors and Directors; living under the same roof, eating at the same board, their mutual relations are kind, affectionate, and respectful. ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE,

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

His Lordship the Bishop of Ottawa.

THE College of St. Joseph is situated in one of the most healthy and picturesque parts of Canada. It was originally founded by the present venerable Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Rev. Dr. Guigues, in the view of affording the youth of Central Canada the facility of an education in the various Arts and Sciences usually taught in colleges.

The city of Ottawa having now, however, been raised to the high position of Capital of Canada, a degree of importance is given to this place which encourages his Lordship to give the institution a more extended sphere of usefulness. With a view to this, extensive improvements have been made during the past scholastic year, for the accommodation of an increased number of pupils after vacation—no pains or expense have been spared to render the institution equal, in every respect, to any other college in the Province.

The Government of the College is vested in the Society of Mary Immaculate. They are assisted in their professional duties by several other clergymen and laymen.

The buildings are spacious and airy and possess every quality desirable in an Educational establishment; attached are Play-grounds of several acres in extent, and a commodious Hall wherein the pupils can enjoy their recreation during rainy or inclement weather.

The system of Education embraces all the various Literary and Scientific branches, the Latin, Greek, English and French languages, Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Rhetoric, Elocution, Political Economy, Moral and Intellectual Philosophy. Music, vocal and instrumental, is also taught.

An extensive and costly apparatus greatly facilitates, and gives additional interest to the study of Chemistry and Natural Philosophy.

The department, however, which merits special attention, is that of the English and French languages. In no institution on the continent are the facilities here offered for the acquisition of these languages surpassed. Several instances have occurred where English children, after twelve months, mastered the French language sufficiently to converse in it with great fluency.

A commercial class, entrusted to the charge of experienced and efficient Professors, has been established for the accommodation of such children as do not desire to enter on a course of classic studies. In this class are taught those branches immediately preparative to each student's intended avocation.

In order to excite a spirit of emulation among the students, examinations are held monthly, and a report of each one's progress is forwarded to his parents.

The discipline of the College adds much to its other advantages. In every department the strictest order prevails, and, above all, due regard to decency, propriety, and morality is enforced—principally by instruction and persuasion.

Proper attention is also given to the formation of those traits of character which are so necessary to enable the pupils in after life to move respected in society. Every care is taken of the health of the pupils; and their religious training is made an object of the greatest solicitude.

Protestant children are not required to attend any of the religious exercises.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME, CHARTERED 1844.

The University of Notre Dame, situated in the lovely valley of the St. Joseph, two miles from South Bend, on the Michigan Southern R. R., is easy of access from every part of the Union. The plan of studies embraces a thorough collegiate course; besides advantages for the acquisition of modern languages and music not usually offered in American colleges. A separate course is opened for students destined for commercial pursuits.

The disciplinary government is mild, yet sufficiently energetic to preserve the most perfect order and regularity. The morals and general deportment are strictly guarded, and the comfort and personal habits of the pupils receive the same attention as in the most refined family circle. Only conciliatory means of correction are used; but if the student proves insensible to these, he is promptly dismissed.

Preparatory Department.—Experience having proved the necessity of separating the younger students from the seniors, arrangements have been extensively and thoroughly made for this, giving to them study-rooms, play-grounds, dormitory, etc., for their exclusive use. To make this department complete, all juveniles under ten years of age, are placed under the care of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, being in every respect separate from the others.

Catholic parents may rest assured that the utmost care will be taken that their children comply regularly with their religious studies, and no efforts will be spared in instructing them fully in the principles and obligations of their holy Religion.

There are in the College various societies of students, formed for different objects—The St. Aloysius, a literary society; the St. Cecelia, a musical association; the Confraternity of the Nocturnal Adoration, and the Arch-Confraternity.

VERY REV. E. SORIN, C. S. S. C.

UNIVERSITY OF SAINT MARY'S OF THE LAKE, CHICAGO.

The constantly increasing patronage has induced the Board of Trustees to undertake the erection of a new University Building, capable of accommodating three times the number of students now attending the schools.

This extension of the buildings affords an opportunity of adding the departments of Divinity, Law and Medicine to the course of studies. The Professors of Rush Medical College will superintend the medical studies, and their lectures will be delivered in their College buildings, some few squares from the University. The Lecture Hall of the Law Department is situated near the Court House, and at a distance not inconvenient for students residing at the University.

Touching the Theological department: A class of twenty will enter on their study of Divinity at the beginning of the ensuing term. Considering the very favorable conditions offered by the Bishop of Chicago to candidates for the Priesthood, there can be no doubt but that the Academic Department will supply from its graduates a sufficient number of students to meet the requirements of the Diocese.

But it is not presumed that this Diocese alone will be represented in the Theological classes. The attention of the Right Rev. Bishops of the neighboring dioceses is called to the many advantages here afforded their students of prosecuting a thorough course of ecclesiastical studies and classes.

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE,

SAN FRANCISCO.

To be Opened on the 6th of July.

PROSPECTUS.

THIS Institution is situated about one mile and a half beyond the Mission, on the county road to San Jose, and directly opposite the First Station of the San Jose Railway. The College grounds consist of sixty acres, and the site possesses all the advantages of a salubrious situation, commanding an extensive view of the Bay and surrounding scenery. The interior arrangements for the health and comfort of the pupils are all that the most fastidious could desire.

The object of the Institution is to impart a sound, thorough, and practical education, at the lowest possible cost, so as to place its advantages within reach of all.

Besides the usual branches of English education, the course of instruction will comprise Book keeping, Mathematics, Ancient and Modern Languages, so that boys, whether destined for mercantile, professional, or mechanical pursuits, can select such course of studies as will best fit them for their future avocations.

The ages for admission are from seven to fifteen years. For those more than fifteen years of age, application must be previously made by letter, accompanied by testimonials of character, when, if found satisfactory, the applicant will be duly notified thereof.

The cost of tuition, board, washing, mending of linen, etc., for the scholastic year, of eleven months, will be only one hundred and fifty dollars.

No extra charges of any kind.

The Pension to be paid at least half yearly in advance; also, such sum to be deposited as will be sufficient to pay the travelling expenses of each student to his place of residence.

The terms are so reduced (less than one-half the usual charges in this State) that the Institution can be conducted only on a rigid cash principle, hence, any failure in remitting the Pension will oblige the authorities of the College to forward the student immediately to his parents or guardians.

It is confidently expected that when the whole edifice will be completed so as to accommodate a greater number of students, the Pension may be still further reduced.

Though it be a Catholic Institution, yet pupils of all denominations will be admitted, and their religious convictions respected; but for sake of uniformity, all will be required to be present at the public religious exercises.

A cap and uniform of dark blue cloth will be worn on Sundays and week days. They can be procured at the College, as also Books and Stationery, at the lowest wholesale prices.

Bedding, Sheets, Pillow-Cases, Towels, etc., will be furnished by the Institution, to defray the cost of which ten dollars will be paid, once only, by each pupil as an entrance fee.

N. B.—The present portion of the building will accommodate about three hundred students, but as there is every reason to believe that a still greater number are desirous of admission, the books of the College will not be open for the enrollment of students before the sixth of July next, hence those residing in the more remote portions of the State need not be apprehensive that in the interim all the places may be engaged by those living in the immediate vicinity. J. F. HARRINGTON, President.

PRAYER BOOKS.

ST. JOSEPH'S MANUAL. Printed with large type, on fine paper, containing 696 pages, 18mo. The merits of this book, among the many which have been published, as well in Europe as America, are its peculiar adaptation to the wants of families or of individuals for public as well as private devotion; for those who live remote from churches, and cannot be present at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Sundays and Holidays, as for those who enjoy greater privileges. It may be styled a volume of prayer and religious instruction, since it not only contains devotions, public and private, adapted to the wants of the many, and for all seasons and occasions of the ecclesiastical year, but it is also explanatory and instructive upon many points where information is frequently sought after. The care and attention which have been given to the distribution of its varied contents, will be equally appreciated by those who have felt the importance of system and arrangement in this particular.

THE BOSTON PILOT

IS PRINTED AND PUBLISHED AT

NO. 23 FRANKLIN STREET,
BOSTON.

OUR NEW PROSPECTUS.

In consequence of advance in the price of every material of which a newspaper is made, THE PILOT cannot afford to give premiums to those who get up Clubs. The year now nearly at a close has been a trying one to many newspaper establishments. Most papers have advanced their price. THE PILOT has not—neither does it intend to do so. We have given better paper, better type, and better matter (if that were possible) than any previous year. Still we did not advance our price, in the expectation that printing materials would come down. But such is not the fact. We are now paying 40 or 50 per cent more for some articles connected with our business, than we paid two years ago. Still we have not advanced our price.

We trust those good friends who have heretofore got up Clubs will take these matters into consideration, and not only use their efforts to continue the number they are now getting, but use their influence to procure more.

No paper that we are aware of gives premiums now—they not only do not give premiums, but they have generally advanced their price.

Here follows our terms for 1864, which will be strictly adhered to :

CONDITIONS.

ONE copy for one year, $2 50 (by mail) in advance, or $3 if not paid in advance. Four months, $1.

Liberal Inducements to Mail Subscribers.

Any person procuring a new subscriber, and sending us $4 in advance, shall receive two copies for one year—sent separately.

Any person procuring two subscribers, and sending us $5 in advance, shall receive three copies—to be sent to one address.

Five copies will be sent to one address for $8 per year—only $1 60 each.

The money for clubs must always be sent in advance. When the sum is large, a draft should be procured if possible.

Any person procuring us ten new subscribers, and sending $15, shall receive ten copies for one year, and one for the getter up of the club—sent to one address. For all clubs above ten, the same price will be charged.

The Clubbing system makes the PILOT the cheapest paper in the United States.

Liberal encouragement given to pedlers, canvassers, etc.

When a Draft on Boston, New York or Philadelphia, cannot be obtained Treasury Notes should be sent. By carefully enclosing money in a letter, without registering, it will generally come safe. A larger amount than ten dollars should not be enclosed in a letter at once.

Persons getting up clubs can go out of their own towns to canvass. The paper will be sent to several Post-offices if necessary.

The following is the proper mode in which to send addresses :

CENTRAL CATHOLIC BOOK-STORE,167 South Clark Street, 167*(Near Monroe Street,) CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.*J. J. KEARNEY,

Respectfully informs the Clergy and Laity, that he keeps on hand a large and complete assortment of

BIBLES, PRAYER-BOOKS, ROSARIES,Medals, Scapulars, Pictures, Missals, Altar Cards, Breviaries, Vestments,

And such articles as are usually kept in a Catholic Book Store.

*All orders from Colleges, Convents, Clergymen and others promptly filled."THE YOUNG CATHOLICS' FRIEND."

A little Monthly, quarto-sized paper, intended for children and suitable for premiums at Sunday-Schools, filled with choice reading, and handsomely illustrated. It is furnished at the low price of two cents per copy, no order being taken for less than ten copies.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Publisher of the YOUNG CATHOLICS' FRIEND may not be thought excessively prudent in the moment he selects to usher his little paper into existence. But the necessity of it has been counted rather than the difficulties it is likely to meet. So many little eyes are getting weary over the Sunday's Catechism; so many aged voices tired of calling attention to its pages without great success, that a little periodical, with moderately entertaining matter, and sound moral instruction, to be read between the Sunday's studies of the Catechism after Mass or Vespers, should have a trial of circulating widely among the Catholic Youth of our own and neighboring States.

Oh, how difficult it is to convey great truths to little children; to labor, not by steps, as we do in Arithmetic, from little addition and subtraction up to great problems, increasing the capacity of understanding with the weight of the things to be understood, but beginning with such questions as "Who made the world?" "Who is God?" "What is man?" the wisdom over which the sages pondered away their lives. How many little "hearts are weary, weary," for some interesting aid to impress upon their memory the great things they are taught to learn by ear.

Let, then, our YOUNG CATHOLICS' FRIEND, fill this blank and convey to its readers—and they should be many—the necessary sweetening for their Sunday's toil. Anecdotes from the lives of our Saints; Little Incidents of Catholic Morality; Sentiments to counteract the reading of the yellow-covered books. Let Father So-and-So tell the story of his travels in foreign lands. We have so many false tales told by our popular travelers that a little truth concerning Catholic countries would be beneficial. Our correspondents will furnish us with so many entertaining accounts of the steps our Faith is making in this and other countries that it will be hard if we cannot excite the languid attention of the little people, who are tired of too much Catechism, or who must be led to learn the Catechism by being baited with something lighter.

Our Bishop, our Clergy, and the St. Vincent de Paul Society, in the city, sanction and will assist our effort, and we have no doubts but that the undertaking will lead to a permanent good work.

OUR LITTLE PAPER,

As an inducement to children for attending the Sunday-Schools, is of an immense value; it keeps them from evil doing when out of school, and at the same time interests and instructs them. No better award of merit can be offered, and the Catechism Classes will soon find it indispensable. It cost but a trifle, and any small society, with limited means, can afford it, costing, as it does, but two cents per copy. The postage being only one cent for every nine copies. Is not that cheap?

Communications of a literary character to be addressed to the "Editor of the YOUNG CATHOLICS' FRIEND, Box 8,920, Chicago, Ill.," and those on business, to the undersigned.

The most readable and most reliable History of Ireland ever published is the

POPULAR HISTORY OF IRELAND,

FROM THE

Earliest Period to the Emancipation of the Catholics.

By THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE, B. C. L.,

CORRESPONDING MEMBER OF THE NEW YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

2 Vols., 12mo, of over 400 pages each, with a general Index, and Illustrated with two very fine Steel Engravings.

Price—Cloth extra, $2.50.—Half Morocco, $3.50.

The plans which the writer followed in what he modestly calls this "compilation" are briefly stated by himself in the dedication to Mrs. Jas. Sadlier:

In making this compilation, the rules which guided me were chiefly to bring out the great events in their relative degrees of prominence; to subordinate details to general effects; to put the first foremost, and the secondary second; to emphasize the epochs; to throw the strongest light upon the cardinal characters; to assign rational, believable causes to strange and uncommon results; in short, to bring out the rationalis of Irish history, under a form not censurable to the rules of art. If I have succeeded even in sketching such an outline as this, I, too, shall have done something for Irish history.

That Mr. McGee has succeeded not only "in sketching such an outline," but in filling up the lights and shades of a grand panoramic picture, we think few readers of his History will doubt after even a cursory examination.

The following letter to the Publishers is from the pen of one of the most distinguished writers and lecturers in America—Henry Giles. He will pardon us for copying it, but we could not resist doing so, for no language could better describe the merits of the work:

DEAR SIRS,—I thank you very sincerely for the copy, which you were so kind as to send me, of the Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGee's "Popular History of Ireland." Such a book was very much wanted, and in this book the want is supplied. The matter is well selected, well digested, and the spirit large, calm, and liberal—free from all bigotries, national, local, political, or religious. I admire the boldness with which the author tells the truth, and yet avoids party rancor or sectarian prejudice. I have been particularly interested in the chapter on my native County of Wexford and of the doings there in the terrible year of "98." In my childhood I heard plenty of stories from both sides steeped in memories of cruelties and blood. I was born within three miles of Gorey and had among my ante-natal kindred both Orange-men and "Croppies." I think the brevity with which the author has treated the story of Ireland previous to the introduction of Christianity, is wise. The antiquity of Ireland before that time, necessitated critical disquisitions very unsuitable to a popular history. Moore, after the most earnest research, and with the strongest inducement to hold by national traditions, hopelessly gives up the darling Milesian-fable. Yet I have seen it reproduced by some recent Irish writers as if it had never been doubted—nay, as if it could not be doubted. Finally, I am pleased with the author's style—it is English, pure, clear, strong, idiomatic, unpretentious; familiar where it ought to be so, but never low or vulgar; rising into eloquence where eloquence is proper, and containing naturally the inspiration of the subject.—H. GRAM

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

MCGEE'S HISTORY OF IRELAND.—It has long been matter of surprise to the learned that a good, general History of Ireland had not yet been added to the literature of this age. Histories of Ireland were not wanting, but somehow they none of them took hold of the public mind. This one was apocryphal, that one was dry and tedious; one was deficient in arrangement, another one-sided and marked by partisan feeling, and so on through the whole catalogue, from Keating and O'Halloran to Atbe McGeoghegan. Year after year passed on, and still the popular History of Ireland remained unwritten. An attempt was made in Ireland a few years ago by Martin Haverty to supply this so great want; but Haverty's History, though in some respects an improvement on its predecessors, did not yet fill the void. To write a History of Ireland pleasing to the Irish race, there was wanting the charm that a poetical imagination gives to all its touches, and this we at length find in the Popular History of Ireland recently completed by the Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGee, and now before us in the shape of two goodly volumes. Here, then, we have a true, fair impartial History of Ireland, embellished with the graces of taste and fancy and glowing with the hues of warmest life, racy, rich, attractive. Carefully sifting the imaginary from the real, and the legendary from the historical, Mr. McGee has yet preserved enough of the early bardic chronicles to connect the pre-historic with the historic period. He gives them for what they are worth, as the only records that remain of those old, old times, when history was still in the womb of futurity, and the bards were the only annalists our fathers had. Passing on through the long, long ages of Ireland's eventful history, Mr. McGee narrates with the flowing ease of a seanachie of old, and the philosophical and political acumen of a nineteenth century thinker, the varied fortunes of the successive races who have at various times peopled the land of Ireland—the pagan Firbolgs and Danaans—the no less pagan Milesians whose descendants, converted by St. Patrick and his missionaries, became our Fathers in the faith—the glories of those early ages before Ireland had lost her royalty—the struggles between the Norman Irish and the old Milesian Irish—the yet fiercer struggles between dominant English Protestantism and oppressed Irish Catholicity—the indomitable courage and heroic constancy with which the people clung to their ancient faith through such trials as no nation ever underwent for so long time for conscience's sake. Then on to the period when the spirit of Irish nationality was defending itself against British centralization, and the treachery and corruption of degenerate Irishmen. And amid all this the literary progress of the race carefully and judiciously noted. How well these things are told—how just the principles enunciated, how calmly dispassionate the tone of the exciting narrative, how true to life the actors in the swiftly-passing scenes—how vividly the great men of Ireland's past are brought before us, can only be understood when the history is read.—New York Tablet.

A POPULAR HISTORY OF IRELAND, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE EMANCIPATION OF THE CATHOLICS. By THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE, B. C. L. In two volumes. New York, D. & J. Sadlier & Co.—In a very gracefully written letter, the author of this book tells Mrs. James Sadlier, wife of one of the publishers, that he has not presumed to attempt a history of their fatherland, still less the history; all that he has hoped to accomplish, considering the obstacles to be met, and which surrounded him, being but a faithful and literally full compendium of that eventful and chequered story.

Mr. McGee commences at the very beginning. He admits that it is impossible to say who were the first inhabitants of "the Green Isle," but he favors the opinion that it was inhabited as long ago as the reign of King Solomon. He refers instructively to the historical accounts of the various immigrations, anterior to the Christianization of Ireland by the blessed St. Patrick. The fifth and final of these colonizing races was called Gael, he says, from one of their remote ancestors; Milesian, from Milesius, the immediate projector of their emigration, and Scotti, from Scotia, the mother of Milesius. They came from Spain.

But to all these traditions our author evidently attaches little importance, dismissing them in two chapters, and commencing his narrative of the authentic history of Erin with the return of Patrick, at about the beginning of the fifth century of the Christian era. And throughout his work, which, evidently a labor of love, Mr. McGee has performed most excellently well, the religious keynote dominates the narrative, love of his native land, patriotic devotion, and enthusiastic aspiration for liberty blending harmoniously as it proceeds, and constituting one of the most delightful books we have taken up for many a day.

It were but asserting an indubitable fact that these volumes will obtain a world-wide circulation and approval.—New York Express.

The work has received the warmest encomiums of the press of all shades of opinions. To show how the work has been appreciated, we may mention that five thousand copies of the work has been sold since last May, and the canvassers have orders for thousands more.

This edition is printed on fine sized and calendered paper, and the type is surrounded by a very handsome engraved border. It is illustrated with thirty-five fine steel engravings, and a very beautiful colored title. This is the cheapest and handsomest edition of the Douay Bible published. This is the only edition of the Bible containing Ward's Errata of the Protestant Bible appended to it. A new and complete illustrated edition of BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS.—Each part illustrated with a fine steel engraving. This new edition is printed in quarto form, uniform with the life of the Blessed Virgin. The letter-press is surrounded by a very elegant engraved border, which adds much to the appearance of the work. We have no hesitation in saying that it is the most complete as well as the most beautiful edition of the "Lives of the Saints" published. Persons who wish to obtain Butler's Lives of the Saints as the author left it, must be sure that they get SADLIER'S EDITION. We mention this because there is an edition, published in numbers by a protestant firm in this city, in which the Notes and some of the Lives have been left out. The author's Notes in our edition, form about one-fifth of the entire work, and it is taking a most unwarrantable liberty with the work to leave them out. Our edition is complete. The notes are certainly the most instructive portion of the work. For instance, there is one note in our edition "On the Writings of St. John Chrysostom," which occupies TWENTY-THREE PAGES OF SMALL TYPE, and all that is left out of the mutilated edition.
